Nestled in an admired pocket adjoining Kensington Oval, this freestanding double brick home delivers a haven of classic craftsmanship entwined with contemporary updates. Flowing effortlessly from door to garden, the home's highly functional design offers big appeal for family life. From its quiet and leafy street, the home is placed a stroll from the heart of Kingsford with its vibrant eat-street and connectivity to light rail. It's also set a walk from prestige tertiary educational institutions UNSW and NIDA, golfing greens, tennis courts and the Kensington Park playground.

- Updated kitchen with stone benchtops, gas cooking and servery
- Family living space with connection to the garden, separate lounge
- Four bedrooms, three feature robes, some with leadlight windows
- Lovely classic details include fretwork, picture rails and floorboards
- Air-conditioning, modern bathrooms, freshly painted, high ceilings
- Rear access via Day Lane to a detached garage housing two cars
