Hideaway in the heart of it all with family-size single-level living and perfect-sized land! Situated where this quiet court transitions into vibrant hospitality locale, this serene three bedroom, two bathroom single-level home has lawned gardens front and rear... and the shopping, hospitality and station of the vibrant Highett Rd precinct within steps via a 'secret' lane! Offering a well-zoned design to suit every style of single-level lifestyle, this accommodating home puts a king-sized garden-access master-suite (with room to work or retreat) to the rear, and places kids' (grandkids' or guests') bedrooms in their own quiet wing. Styled with two free-flowing living zones around a prestige stone and Blanco appliance kitchen, this well-designed home is well-appointed to with a stylish skylit spa-bathroom, an elegant ensuite, and great storage including two walk-in robes. Starring solid hardwood floors, plantation-shutters plus block-out blinds, and ducted heating plus reverse-cycle air-conditioning, the home makes great use of good gardens with tall French doors from living and the master-suite, tree-shaded lawns for kids and pets to play, and two car-parking including an auto-garage. Secluded, but so central, there's all you need here ... including a city-style bayside lifestyle - just down the lane to the cafes and restaurants including George Columbaris's new Hellenic House Project. Steps to the train for a half an hour city commute, and one station down the line to Southland's cinemas and shopping ... there's even great access to schools with Cheltenham Primary and the Mentone schools just a few minutes more down the line!
