A prized location with a generous, corner position on Fletcher Street and Fitzgerald Road enhances the timeless street appeal of this impressive five bedroom, two bathroom Art Deco beauty boasting glorious period details, a northerly rear aspect and zoning for Strathmore College. Discover enchanting interiors framed by high ceilings, decorative plasterwork, rich dark-stained timber plate rails, polished hardwood floors, three original brick open fireplaces and leadlight aspects. Including beautiful bay window seat and bevelled edge glass French doors. An elegant entrance hall welcomes you through to a spacious formal living, dining rooms and light filled open plan family domain with gas fireplace, an alfresco deck and private garden which provides the perfect setting for entertaining family and friends. Custom-designed kitchen with Ilve cooker, stone benches and endless cabinetry will delight gourmet cooks. Complemented by spacious bedrooms, with walk-in-robos and views, period-inspired bathrooms, two powder rooms, plentiful storage, hydronic heating, split-system air conditioner, two garages and off street driveway parking. Sensationally situated near Queens Park, popular cafés, Puckle Street shopping and elite schools. Buses and trams at your door step. Essendon Station within easy walking distance.
