Beautifully situated at the end of a small Cul de Sac this quality built home offers ample accommodation for the family along with an amazing alfresco for outdoor living with views to die for on approx. 1867m². The home offers a broad front entry and hallway with powder room, 4 bedrooms, master with ensuite and generous sized walk-in robes, central bathroom, a large office or 5th bedroom, theatre room, study, and a spacious open plan family dining kitchen with large walk-in pantry. With polished concrete floors the natural light bounces around, ducted heating and cooling, ceiling fans and a solid fuel heater the home provides a very comfortable living environment. The kitchen living area has a wall of sliding glass doors giving access to the timber decked alfresco area with BBQ and running water to sink overlooking the natural stone walled garden terracing and firepit area. There is a workshop storage area as well solar hot water and double glazing throughout all contributing to a unique and lovely family lifestyle.
