Set in a prime East Gosford locale, this much-loved family home is ready for it's new owners to revitalize and breathe in new life. In almost original condition, this one will reveal it's beauty once stripped back with a little elbow grease and imagination. OFFERING:- A flat and level 670 m² (approx) block- Fully renovated main bathroom- Multiple living areas plus an enclosed sunroom- New stacker doors open out to an East facing timber deck- Single bedroom granny flat with en-suite- Ample storage with sheds- High ceilings with original circa 1930s cornicing- Easy stroll to parks, shops, restaurants and a bus stop within 100m walk that services direct routes Erina Fair and Gosford. Yes, there may be brown carpet in the second bathroom and a vintage mint coloured kitchen, however this home has some amazing hidden surprises that will delight the new owners. Like the gorgeous original timber flooring that is currently hiding under the 1950s carpets in the living room. Come along and take a look through, and be prepared to fall in love.
