A delightful blend of zest and sophistication, 2 Francis Street, Mordialloc is set to house two striking residences. Here, bespoke design and quality workmanship meet to create two homes of style and comfort – the perfect canvas for new memories to be made. Developed across two spacious levels, each townhouse will boast architecturally designed exteriors and interiors, generous open plan living spaces, luxurious master suites, private alfresco areas, and lush landscaped gardens. Francis brings together warm and cold tones in an ideal balance of colours and textures around the home. The design-led selection of materials includes exquisite natural stone benchtops, stylish brushed nickel tapware, high-quality timber flooring and plush carpets.
