Introducing a remarkable property – a recently-renovated, four-bedroom, three-bathroom town residence, situated within walking distance to the prestigious and highly sought-after Balwyn High School. This property offers not only a prime location but also numerous features that cater towards modern lifestyles for families or investors. As you step into the stylish entry foyer, you'll be greeted by a sense of sophistication and charm. The residence boasts two spacious living zones, providing ample room for relaxation and entertainment. The black stone kitchen, complete with stainless steel appliances, presents a sleek and elegant space for culinary enthusiasts to thrive. Retreat to the master bedroom, which features a walk-in robe and ensuite access to a luxurious stone vanity within the spacious bathroom. The upper level also features an open retreat area that seamlessly connects to two bedrooms with built-in robes and a central family bathroom. Indulge in the outdoors with an under-cover deck and a sun-drenched courtyard, offering the perfect setting for hosting gatherings or simply enjoying some fresh air. The convenience of a double auto garage with internal entry ensures effortless access and secure parking. Benefit from the property's proximity to a range of amenities, including Boroondara Sports Complex, Macleay Park, North Balwyn Village, Greythorn Central and Whitehorse Road shopping precincts, Box Hill Central and Westfield Doncaster. With quick access to the Eastern Freeway and Park & Ride, your daily commute will be an effortless journey. Don't miss this exceptional opportunity to experience the epitome of modern living in an esteemed location and make this remarkable property your new home.
