As you step into this immaculate apartment nestled within the renowned Peninsula, you'll immediately be struck by its impeccable presentation. This spacious two-bedroom apartment spanning 139m² is bathed in natural light, boasting an expansive layout perfect for embracing the opulent coastal lifestyle synonymous with Peninsula. The kitchen is tastefully appointed with ample counter and storage space, seamlessly flowing into the expansive open-plan living and dining areas, a generously sized wrap-around balcony facing east to south/east beckons you to unwind, savoring leisurely days basking in the sun and the invigorating sea breeze. The master bedroom serves as a serene sanctuary, offering a secluded retreat for its residents. Featuring an elegant ensuite bathroom, it provides an ideal ambiance for relaxation and rejuvenation. The second bedroom is equally impressive, generously proportioned and equipped with a convenient built-in wardrobe. An additional bathroom further enhances the apartment's functionality, ensuring guests enjoy their own private space for refreshment and renewal. Complete with full air-conditioning, the apartment ensures added comfort even during the warmest summer days. In addition to the secure basement parking, residents have access to a range of premium amenities, including a commercial-sized gym, indoor heated pool with spa, two outdoor pools, a full-sized tennis court, a half-court basketball court, two saunas, and BBQ/picnic facilities. Positioned directly across the road from Surfers Paradise beach, this apartment boasts an enviable location, offering easy access to the myriad attractions the area has to offer. From an eclectic array of dining options to entertainment venues and shopping destinations, everything is conveniently located within arm's reach. Moreover, with the "Surfers Paradise" G:link public transport system just a few steps from your doorstep, exploring the Gold Coast has never been more effortless.
