Conveniently located in the Plantation Resort, Ray White Port Douglas are proud to present this well appointed, recently renovated one bedroom unit. Thoughtfully and tastefully redesigned, this unit offers an owner occupier the opportunity to move right in, or for a savvy investor to add to their portfolio. Entering the unit you are instantly greeted by open plan living flooding with natural light from the large surrounding windows. The renovated kitchen has been intentionally designed to make the most of the space, with the island bench able to be placed in different positions to suit your needs. The kitchen also features ample storage space and modern appliances. Via the hallway is the sleek renovated bathroom, with modern neutral finishes creating a calming and inviting space. Adjacent is the large bedroom, with glass sliding doors leading to the private outdoor patio. Plantation Resort offers owners and guests alike lush manicured gardens, as well as a large lagoon swimming pool, tennis court, bar and restaurant. Situated on the southern edge of town, this little oasis has the convenience of being close to all that Port Douglas has to offer, but the tranquillity of being just outside of the hustle and bustle.
