Privately positioned and nestled amongst verdant grounds, this light filled and spacious home is desirably located in Battery Point in an established and tightly held complex to offer the very best of apartment living. A tasteful monochromatic interior with extensive glazing in the spacious living area complements the well designed floorplan. Open plan dining and living flows seamlessly onto the sheltered terrace to create indoor/outdoor living and a place to relax and entertain family and friends alfresco. The kitchen is fully equipped and conveniently located next to a sliding door that leads into a spacious laundry and storage area. The master suite has an ensuite bathroom and built in robes, and a second double bedroom also with built in robes, is serviced by the central bathroom with bath tub. Two car spaces on title enhance the amenity of the home. Within easy walking distance of historic Battery Point, the cosmopolitan Salamanca Strip and Hobart's waterfront and CBD, this home is well located to offer a vibrant lifestyle close to all amenities. A tightly held building, this is a rare opportunity to secure the perfect home or investment property in one of Southern Tasmania's most desirable locations.
