Looking for something special? This wonderful, one year old townhouse is perfect for investors, first home buyers, and young couples and downsizers. Set across two levels, this spacious property is unassuming from the outside, and impressive with every turn of your head. Hardwood floors make up the living, dining and kitchen area on the ground floor of the home, with an abundance of light and space it makes for perfect, relaxing, entertaining and everyday living space. With two bedrooms, one bathroom, and a huge open plan living, kitchen and dining area. Large sliding doors to a private porch and good sized yard, with access to the carport. This contemporary townhouse has ample generous natural light supply. But it's the location that elevates this residence's living to a whole new level. Just a minute's walk from the Footscray Hospital, and the quickly becoming famous Gordon St Bakery, and a short distance to Footscray Markets, Footscray train station and Victoria University.
