This well-built by a local builder immaculately maintained three-bedroom townhouse presents an ideal investment opportunity for a wide range of property buyers. It features a spacious kitchen/dining area with a north facing lounge room, three good size bedrooms, ample storage, a separate bathroom, and laundry with a double lock up garage and storage space. Desirable quiet back unit with a good size yard for gardening and veggie growing or family pet. Whether you're downsizing, or a first home buyer, a Professional person, or a single parent with a child looking to enter the property market, this is a property you must consider. Investors will also like the strong returns this property offers as a rental.
