SOLD by Jellis Craig. Tucked away in a quiet leafy street within the beautiful Springthorpe Estate, this property presents a brilliant opportunity for 1st home buyers, investors and anyone looking for simple low maintenance living in a great location. The single level format ensures ease of living for all age groups, and you'll even have a taste of luxury via access to Springthorpe Country Club's swimming pool, tennis court, gym and playground. A deep front veranda sets the scene, leading inside to the open plan living/dining zone and modern kitchen equipped with stone benchtops and Bosch stainless steel appliances. Both bedrooms offer a good size and generous built-in robes, while the modern bathroom is centrally located and inviting. Welcome extras include lovely high ceilings, split system heating/cooling, European laundry and 2 secure undercover parking spaces. An easy walk to the bus, train station, local nature reserves, Latrobe University and Polaris shopping precinct, this is a place that is both comfortable and convenient in every way.
