This exceptional townhouse is the epitome of design excellence on a coveted street front position with picturesque landscaped gardens. Capturing incredible views of the Dandenong Ranges from its prime position steps from Rosanna Parklands, Rosanna Primary School, and Charles La-Trobe P-12 College and in proximity of Rosanna Station, Warringal Shopping Centre, and Northland, this is a remarkable property in the right location. Generously larger than the average size home and laden with luxurious features ensures the interior of this residence provides elevated comfort. On the ground floor, new residents will revel in showcase open plan living featuring rich wide-plank flooring. The lounge flows to the meals area and kitchen with stone benchtops, Smeg appliances including a gas cooktop and stainless steel oven, and sleek matte black tapware. Sliding doors to the well spaced courtyard afford a surplus of natural light and a flawless indoor-outdoor flow. Equal consideration has been paid to providing enticing accommodation. The spacious ground floor bedroom with quality carpet and built-in robe neighbours one of the luxurious bathrooms featuring a floating vanity, floor to ceiling tiles, and large shower. On the upper level, the comfortable retreat provides supplementary living space that spills to a second designer bathroom with soaking tub and bedrooms including the magnificent main bedroom with walk-in robe and deluxe shower ensuite. Furthermore, each bedroom is adorned with split system heating/cooling for seasonal comfort. With finishing touches including an aggregate drive leading to a secure double garage with in-house access, an alarm system, and CCTV, this property sets the benchmark for complete comfort and convenience. Designed for discerning buyers, this property will make a memorable impression. Plan your viewing today.
