Ideally located next to sprawling gardens, this three level residence offers unbelievable rewards for those looking to complete a total transformation. A private north facing courtyard is the start of the adventure and a flexible floorplan will deliver endless living options. The ground floor offers a spacious bedroom/home office with powder room. The middle level provides large living and dining options and separate kitchen whilst the top level delivers generous bedrooms circling a central bathroom. Other features include access to an attic and a single car garage. The boutique block of only 6 properties is in a desirable location close to cafes, public transport and the bay. The ultimate opportunity to design, styling and rejuvenate in a desirable location.
