With ideal dimensions and modern comforts, this renovated contemporary residence offers immediate family appeal in a tranquil pocket close to Bay St shops and restaurants, the light rail, schools, parks and the beach. This impeccable brick residence comprises generous living area, large kitchen with dining domain opening out to a private decked courtyard which provides seamless indoor/outdoor entertaining. Bathed in natural light, the superbly proportioned main bedroom is complimented by a chic ensuite and built-in robes. Two equally spacious bedrooms with built-in robes share a second designer bathroom. The property is further enhanced by a sensational rooftop terrace with breathtaking city views. Other features include security entrance, ducted heating/cooling throughout, study nook, powder room, separate laundry and garage parking for one car.
