- Contemporary kitchen with Caesar stone bench tops and Smeg appliances
- East-facing balcony with golf course views
- Hardwood flooring throughout bottom level of the home.
- Harmonious wall panelling
- Solar electricity and hot water
- Spacious double lock-up garage with sealed concrete and easy access to kitchen (for groceries)
- Additional downstairs living and underneath stair storage space
- Well-maintained backyard with pool
- Upstairs landing/study nook
- Ducted air conditioning throughout
- Secure, gated complex of only 4 luxury villas.
- Quick drive to local amenities including Robina Town Centre, Hospital, train station, local schools and University

Robina is a master-planned suburb which has developed quickly over the last 30 years. The newly renovated Robina Town Centre boasts a variety of food and retail shopping with still other local shops as an option as well. Many educational facilities from Primary education to University also make it ideal for the family to stay long term in Robina. The hospital's proximity as well as facilities make it ideal also for retirement living or for your extended family. It is no wonder why Robina has grown to be so popular.
