A blue-chip position of unrivalled convenience, this charming three-bedroom unit flaunts a lifestyle of privacy as a coveted beachside address places the home within steps from the Frankston Foreshore, Kinetic Stadium, Frankston Hospital and the always vibrant Frankston CBD. Gracefully retaining the elegance of its c1970s origins, a rejuvenated exterior opens to an interior rich in history and charm as striking originality establishes character across a layout of traditional proportions. Welcoming the chance to enhance across a north-facing lounge and dining room, dedicated kitchen with combined oven and cooktop, and main bathroom with separate toilet, this single-level home presents comfortable accommodation across three bedrooms. A private rear courtyard inspires further opportunity to enhance, while a rear garden shed and single garage offers a place to secure tools and garden equipment. Set within a quiet complex of only five, with an active Body Corporate, this prime investment or project presents to market for the first time in decades.
