An exciting first step up the property ladder or a money-wise investment walking distance to Monash University, the tram, bustling Carnegie Village and train station, you'll adore the attractively updated style of this two bedroom apartment. Situated on the ground floor within a boutique group of eight, the double brick construction ensures peace and quiet while you relax in the spacious lounge and dining room. Alongside, the renovated kitchen with stainless steel appliances is matched with the comfort of a fashionable white bathroom with laundry facilities and a convenient single carport. Just around the corner from Ardrie Park, it's only moments from Australia's fashion capital - Chadstone Shopping Centre.
