Set quietly back from Melbourne Road yet still enjoying all the prominence and convenience of such an ideal position, this bright townhouse residence puts you within walking distance of North Williamstown station, Williamstown North Primary School, cool cafes and Douglas Parade's comprehensive shopping. The timber floors of the downstairs living and dining area lead to a courtyard created so that entertaining and enjoyment are made easy by low-maintenance landscaping while the open-plan kitchen's immaculate originality is complemented by stainless steel appliances, ample cabinetry and a broad bench-top. Two double bedrooms sharing a beautifully renovated dual vanity bathroom on the upstairs level include a main bedroom featuring a full-width balcony where leafiness makes the appeal – already impressive - even better than expected. A versatile study or third bedroom downstairs is an added attraction of a design enhanced by plantation shutters, heating/cooling, secure garage and an extra car space.
