

3/191 Pacific Drive, Port Macquarie, NSW 2444

Sold Townhouse

Thursday, 26 October 2023

3/191 Pacific Drive, Port Macquarie, NSW 2444

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: Townhouse

David Evans
0421833167

Lachlan Mitchell
0428356763

Contact agent

Positioned in an elevated, sought-after location, along the beautiful coastline nestled between Lighthouse and Shelly beaches, this stunning townhouse showcases, direct street frontage, modern style, high quality finishes and overly generous living spaces. Taking advantage of the elevated position and Northerly aspect, this home offers a great outlook with district views and ocean glimpses, whilst capturing cool breezes in the summer months. Upon entry, is a massive open plan kitchen with gorgeous 40mm waterfall stone bench tops, modern stainless-steel appliances with gas cooking and an abundance of cupboard space. This opens to a completely private, yet sundrenched balcony, with enough space for a large alfresco dining table, ideal for gatherings with friends and family. Back inside, is an equally as impressive dining and lounge space that opens from the kitchen, which is flooded with light and larger than most big family homes. Up a few steps, to the spectacular master bedroom, which serves as a perfect parents retreat. Offering a king-sized bedroom area, which even captures a slight glimpse of the ocean, a quality ensuite bathroom and large walk-in-robe, it is a wonderful feature of this home. On the lower floor, you'll discover a rare second living space, which is an ideal rumpus or TV zone being set away by itself, plus two further spacious bedrooms and a luxuriously finished main bathroom. A unique feature for this style of property is the oversized double garage, wide private driveway with direct street access and an extremely rare side access to store your caravan, boat or maybe an additional vehicle. - Study to work from home - Ideal position within the complex - Stainless-steel appliances & stone benches - Remote garage with internal access - 5 kilometres from the CBD - Less than 1 km to shops and beach