Individually inviting, architecturally adventurous, this dynamic dual level residence is an exercise in excellence that's an absolute delight to live in. Two double bedrooms, each accompanied by aspects over its own courtyard retreat, define downstairs dimensions that are completed by a central bathroom featuring a separate bath and shower, a powder room and a European laundry. Above, superb timber floors and an endless supply of natural light complement a living/dining area that incorporates a Smeg equipped kitchen with quality cabinetry and an integrated fridge and freezer. The balcony's ability to entertain adds an ideal outdoor element to exceptional spaces, further enhanced by heating/cooling in every room, a second powder room and the convenience of car parking. One of only three, positioned to enjoy the best of the inner west - with Footscray shopping, Seddon cafes, West Footscray station trains all just moments away.
