Positioned in the heart of one of Frankston's most family-friendly positions with the picturesque parklands only paces from home, this two-bedroom apartment provides an alluring low-maintenance lifestyle for those wishing to keep their finger on the pulse. Rising above a set of quiet shops with great coffee, this modern retreat offers the perfect blend of space and amenity, with treetop aspects and warm afternoon sun enlightening secluded proportions. Let the seasonal tree changes reflect colour across a white-on-white colour palette, as leafy aspects extend beyond a sun-drenched balcony to bring to life an open living and dining domain. Keeping conversations flowing across the zones, a central stone island bench with breakfast bar offers casual dining space while ample bench space, modern appliances and ample cabinetry highlight the kitchen's functional design. Two light-filled bedrooms provide comfort for couples or small families, as each share access to the central bathroom, complete with separate tub and shower. A generous walk-in robe, balcony access and direct bathroom entry elevates the luxury found within the master bedroom, while split-system heating and cooling, a single parking bay, separate storage shed and a location only steps from the Beach Street shops highlight additional features of the property. Enter via Omaroo Lane next to Kareela Road Shops
