Perfectly suited to a new home buyer who would prefer not to wait for construction, this elegantly presented strata title unit is found in a popular new homes area and set amongst peaceful natural surroundings. Unique features of this appealing property include generous room sizes throughout, master suite with walk-in wardrobe and ensuite bathroom, high-quality kitchen with custom journey, premium stone bench-tops and freestanding 900mm stainless steel gas cooker. Stepping past a large sliding glass door from the living space, outside you will find a low maintenance but spacious garden, a safe and secure area to enjoy. The main bathroom is centrally located and services the second bedroom, which also benefits from built-in wardrobe. Contained entirely on one level, and featuring internal access from the garage with remote control door, this unit is ready to be made a home.
