Idyllically positioned to reach the best of Cranbourne's lively retail and recreational amenities, this light-filled yet compact two-bedroom villa strikes a charming impression across a layout that nurtures comfortable and private living. Blissfully enjoying a quiet privacy, the result of an off-street position to the rear of only three, a bounty of potential highlights a classic interior where traditional proportions offer a dedicated lounge and combined meals and kitchen. Balancing an indoor/outdoor connection via glass sliders, the lounge opens across a covered courtyard complete with built-in barbecue with sink allowing an effortless flow when hosting. Placing a compact dining table to the centre, ample kitchen cabinetry and modern stainless steel appliances make food preparation an easy task. Consisting of two generous bedrooms each with robes, the accommodation includes a bright family bathroom with bath and corner shower, and private toilet. Additional inclusions comprise gas ducted heating, split-system air conditioning, master bedroom ceiling fan, garden shed, low-maintenance courtyard garden and single garage. Positioned within a quick dash to Cranbourne Station, Greg Clydesdale Square and the High Street shops, a convenient address sits within arm's reach of every Cranbourne amenity.
