Nestled privately at the rear of a charming trio, this designer townhouse offers a seamless blend of modern style and light-filled living. Boasting 2.7m high ceiling and timber floors throughout, the home creates an airy and inviting ambience, enhanced by its serene no-through road position. Be captivated by the contemporary influenced design, tastefully adorned with a neutral colour palette that exudes a refreshing sense of space. A north-facing living room leads to a crisp-white stone kitchen/meals area complete with stainless steel appliances and unfolding to a private courtyard. The thoughtfully designed layout includes ground and upper-level main bedrooms (each with an ensuite), accompanied by 2 further robed bedrooms and modern bathroom. Additionally, the inclusion of split system heating/AC, alarm system and double garage promise a lifestyle of comfort and ease. Positioned in the Essex Heights Primary catchment, close to Burwood One Shopping Centre, Mount Waverley Village, Deakin University and PLC.
