With its solid bones and brilliant bayside location, this one-bedroom apartment is ready for a transformation into a modern haven with minimal effort. Positioned on the first floor of an distinct boutique block graced with a prominent glass wall on the front facade, it's positioned just a stone's throw from the beach, Acland Street's diverse array of shops and eateries, buses, Tram Route 96 for city commutes, the Botanical Gardens, and the nostalgia of Jerry's Milk Bar. Inside, a central hallway invites you into the living and dining room that comfortably fits a four-seater dining set and a large couch. The kitchen, functional and ready for your personal touch, comes equipped with an upright stove, while the separate bathroom with a shower-over-bath setup offers a blank slate for your renovation inspiration. Additional conveniences include a balcony to relax and enjoy the fresh sea air, a car space, hallway storage, communal laundry and secure intercom entry. This is an ideal match for first home buyers looking to make their mark, investors in search of a sterling addition to their portfolio, or anyone seeking to establish a bayside base.
