This contemporary townhouse offers a compelling low-maintenance lifestyle in a lovely, peaceful pocket of homes. Designed for discerning buyers who appreciate the feel of a large family home without all the work, this property will make a lasting impression. The stately exterior with double garage and portico entry evokes a sense of style and sophistication. Paired with a bright and inviting interior that extends a warm welcome to make yourself at home, there is an instant sense of ease upon entry. The lounge and dining area with beautiful blonde floorboards and high ceilings boasts French doors directly to the private alfresco with retractable shade blind. At the heart of the home, the meals area and kitchen with granite benchtops, gas cooktop, wall oven, and breakfast bar is ideal for hosting get-togethers. On the upper level, comfortable accommodation is provided by generous family bedrooms with quality carpet and built-in robes plus an idyllic main bedroom with walk-in robe and stylish shower ensuite. With finishing touches including a ground floor guest WC, sizeable laundry, and ducted heating and cooling for seasonal comfort, this home's exceptional attention to detail will afford an enviable level of comfort. Coupled with a convenient location near Ted Ajani Reserve, Ruffey Lake Park, Macedon Plaza, Aquarena, Eastern Freeway, Templestowe Heights Primary School, and Templestowe College, this property promises to tick all the boxes of a brilliant investment.
