In a private, rear-of-the-block position, this tastefully refurbished two bedroom unit features a beautiful private outdoor living area, with the unit bordered by single level dwellings offering privacy and loads of natural light. A secluded sanctuary just moments from Kew Junction, flowing easily from a modern kitchen equipped with volumes of cabinetry to a bright lounge / dining area, the home is bathed in northerly light and can't help but lift your spirits. Each of the bedrooms is well-serviced by built-in robes and premium wool carpets, whilst the bathroom / laundry is separate to WC. The backyard is a peaceful retreat that is perfect for outdoor entertaining. Additional features include reverse cycle air conditioning, secure intercom entry, an undercover parking space and access to a communal storeroom. Peacefully situated yet central to Kew Junction, this is a dream location of enduring market appeal. You can walk to Coles, cafes, restaurants and to some of wonderful leafy Kew's best parks and trails. A tram at the end of the street provides easy access to the city, or you can sneak through to the Eastern Freeway in just minutes.
