Ideally situated just a short walk from the Broadford Railway station, childcare centre, main street cafes and shops, sporting facilities and dining options, who needs a car? This exceptionally well-presented three-bedroom dwelling with no body corporate offers a spacious open plan living area with dining, family and lounge zone, with the lounge including a R/C split system and gas ducted heating. The master bedroom includes walk in robe and ensuite. Bedroom two and three also include double BIRs. There is a spacious laundry and separate toilet. Additional features include front and rear security doors, and landscaped front and rear yard. This is a quality low-maintenance residence or investment property in a quiet, yet convenient location. We invite your inspection.
