Brilliantly designed and tastefully thought through, this brand new double level three bedroom home leaves nothing to be further desired and is almost move in ready. Built by the area's most reputable developer with an abundance of living space both downstairs and upstairs including a study, this home offers room for the whole family. With a huge master bedroom and well-appointed ensuite as well as good sized bedrooms two and three, this home can cater to a growing family with a beautifully positioned central bathroom accessible to all. The downstairs open plan living with access to the rear yard provides opportunity for entertaining or just relaxing and winding down. The outdoor space includes a manicured but low maintenance garden and as you would expect a great sized back patio. Nestled quietly in a fantastic location, this brand new development is located within a short walk to a large variety of shops, supermarkets, and the incredible Metro train station at Mooroolbark.
