If you're after a home that is level, low maintenance and modern, this may be the property for you. An open plan kitchen provides an abundance of cupboard space, bench space and features quality appliances. The dining and living area is open planned and a great spot to entertain. A glass sliding door leads to a small concrete entertaining area, the perfect addition from this space for summertime dining and expands to a fully fenced and low maintenance yard. The home is comprised of two generously sized bedrooms, one with built ins and the master room features the convenience of a walk in robe and ensuite. Great for busy people who like their own space and privacy. The main bathroom includes a bath, separate shower, and vanity. A toilet is separate. The garage has internal access and also includes the laundry. Backing onto Oakdowns Park and close to local beaches, shops, cafes and services and just 20 minutes to the CBD. Popular and highly sought-after location. Level and low maintenance. Spacious open plan living. Two generous sized bedrooms, master with ensuite. Garage with internal access. Close to services.
