One of only four townhouses in a quiet, boutique development, this two-bedroom home will excite investors and first-home buyers looking to create something special from a blank canvas with excellent potential. Set back from the road, on a wide and leafy street, the property features a sunlit living space with seamless transition to a full width, tiled courtyard. The low-maintenance interior flows over two levels, and includes a spacious upper level with large master bedroom featuring an ensuite and private balcony. Fully self-contained with a large kitchen and internal laundry, the property offers easy convenience and plenty of space. Ideally located for transport, recreation, and retail – 650m to Drummoyne Ferry Wharf, 600m to bayside parks, 450m to cafes and supermarkets.
