Nestled on a tranquil street just a brief walk away from both Acland Street and Balaclava, this contemporary split-level apartment presents an exceptional living experience. Boasting a unique rooftop terrace, adorned with a built-in BBQ and wash-up sink, this residence offers a rare and delightful outdoor space. The property features modern fixtures and fittings and is situated in an exclusive boutique block consisting of only 5 units. The open-plan design encompasses a living area with an island bench seamlessly integrated with a modern kitchen, creating a stylish and functional space. The split-system heating and cooling ensure comfort throughout the year, while both bedrooms are equipped with built-in robes for ample storage. The laundry comes complete with a washer, dryer, and trough, adding convenience to everyday living. Security is a priority with a protected entrance featuring an intercom system, providing peace of mind. Additionally, the property includes a secure car park with a stacker system, offering a secure and efficient solution for parking. Embrace a contemporary and convenient lifestyle in this sophisticated residence.
