A rare opportunity to secure exceptionally unit with the unit, laundry, storage room and car park all up for grabs. Enjoy central city living in this newly renovated two-bedroom ground-floor apartment with parking in Brunswick. One of only nine units in the block, you are conveniently located just a few streets from countless amenities along the popular strip of Sydney Road and plenty of public transport options, this well-appointed home is not one to be missed. Upon entering the home, the contemporary kitchen is sure to impress with its clean white colour scheme and subway-tile splashback, contrasted with attractive dark tiled flooring. Enjoy the gas stove-top and modern oven as you cook up meals for you and your loved ones. With an open plan into the dining area, you'll have space for a dining table to entertain guests. In the lounge, you'll stay comfortable across the seasons with heating and a split air conditioning system, along with modern dark carpeting. Enjoy natural light through the large window or make use of the blackout privacy blinds when you need. Two modern bedrooms with carpeting, privacy blinds and built-in robes make for a comfortable place to relax – or, convert a room into your own personal home office with space for a large desk to benefit from natural light through the windows. The home's modern feel continues into the bathroom, where you'll find clean white tiling and an inviting bathtub to unwind after a long day. The large mirror, detachable showerhead and separate toilet offer additional conveniences. Meanwhile, enjoy the benefit of having a separate laundry room with mounted shelving offering additional storage. The home also includes a lockable storage room and dedicated car space. Close to countless essential facilities including Barkly Square Shopping Centre, trains, trams and several parks in walking distance, this location can't be beat. Enjoy convenient city living with everything you need in this well-appointed, move-in ready home.
