Do you love your huge collection of shoes & clothes & need an over-sized walk-in robe to accommodate & display them all? Well look no further than this 3 bedroom multi-level townhouse with not 1 but 2 walk-in robes. The main robe off the main bedroom is the size of a study and was lovingly designed by the owner to show off her extensive wardrobe. Do you also have a flatmate who you can't bear to break up with? Well bring them with you because at this multi-level property you can each have your own bedroom level and meet on the middle level for eats and party beats on the balcony before popping down to the enclosed courtyard and spa.
