

3/44 Frank Street, Frankston, Vic 3199

House For Sale

Tuesday, 23 April 2024

3/44 Frank Street, Frankston, Vic 3199

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Area: 175 m2

Type: House

Natalie Sims
0427472773

$520,000 - $560,000

Fresh and ready to impress, this beautifully presented two bedroom unit offers single level ease in a peaceful leafy locale, moments from the beach and surrounded by amenities. Nestled amongst a quiet impeccable group; inside you'll find an inviting living room overlooking the garden with expansive windows brimming with natural light. Stylish and modern, the gleaming kitchen enjoys stainless steel appliances and ample storage, accompanied by a spacious dining area which flows to the outside for easy entertaining. Here, you'll find a private supersized courtyard bathed in sunshine that will wow with its alfresco space, paved maintenance free appeal and ample room for a vegetable garden, all while being secure for children and pets. Two spacious bedrooms are peacefully tucked away from the living zone, the master with an individual split system and walk-in robe, both sharing an immaculate family-sized bathroom with a separate shower and bath, refreshed with an updated shower screen and vanity. Complete with easy-care timber style flooring, soft carpet to the bedrooms, a space heater, split systems, large laundry with excellent storage, block out and exterior sunblinds. Parking is also a breeze with a single lockup garage, driveway space in front + visitor parking, while the body corporate maintains the lawn and stunning garden surrounds. Situated within a heartbeat of the Peninsula Kingswood Country Golf Club, Peninsula Reserve, John Paul College and Karingal Shopping Village, plus moments to Bayside Shopping Centre, Frankston Hospital, Monash University and beautiful stretches of coastline; whether you're seeking a home to live in or invest, this absolute gem is both move-in and rental ready.