Neometro architecture and proximity to Chapel Street and Toorak Road, this residence epitomises the essence of urban living. Discover the sophisticated charm of this exceptional 88sqm (approx) one-bedroom apartment crafted and designed with architectural excellence. Upon entering you are greeted by a moody tiled entrance hall evoking a loft-style ambience featuring plenty of storage and a built-in study area leading to the expansive living and dining area. The kitchen takes centre stage, equipped with a large island bench and loads of storage. Additionally, the fireplace enhances the style of the space by elevating the home's bespoke status whilst a split system heating/cooling is also offered. Outside, the balcony offers leafy green vistas providing a tranquil escape from the vibrant energy of nearby Chapel Street. The generously sized bedroom boasts an abundance of built-in robe and storage options, whilst a refined ensuite offers a peaceful retreat amidst Melbourne's bustling Southside. In this exclusive boutique complex of 11, convenience and privacy are paramount. An allocated storage cage and car space via stacker ensures you'll never have to search for parking in this area again. This is truly an opportunity not to be missed.
