Situated in a fabulous location this immaculate townhouse is located in the highly sought-after, 'original' Seachange Estate. This feature-packed home offers comfortable and convenient living and is the ideal low-maintenance property for a relaxed lifestyle by the bay. The location of this superb residence is second to none being an easy and picturesque walk to the St Leonards Yacht Club, Edwards Point Nature Reserve and the sandy beaches of Port Phillip Bay. The idyllic township of St Leonards with its vibrant cafe scene and iconic pier are just a short drive away. Boasting ample natural light and a spacious open-plan design this stunning residence features a well appointed modern kitchen finished with stainless steel appliances and ample bench space. The coastal designed living/dining area is ideal to wind down within after a day at the beach and merges seamlessly with the private courtyard garden. This outdoor living zone offers a relaxing green-space to entertain outdoors. Comprising three spacious bedrooms, all with built-in robes, there is plenty of room to accommodate friends and family. All bedrooms are serviced by a stylish, centrally-located modern bathroom. Ducted heating and evaporative cooling ensure a comfortable temperature throughout the seasons and a single lock up garage provides for your parking needs. With a well-rounded list of features complimenting this townhouse, it truly offers executive living at an affordable price and is the ideal property for those seeking a low-maintenance coastal retreat.
