This stunning 1 bedroom apartment is just moments away from public transport, parklands and the renowned vibrant High Street, where you'll find cosy cafes, restaurants and the gem that is Psarakos market. The space features an open layout with freshly updated flooring, window furnishings, heating and cooling. The generous sized bedroom boasts large built-in mirrored robes which provide ample storage and picture windows; flooding the room with natural light. With designated on-site parking, you'll be comfortable leaving the car at home and catching the 86 tram into the city. Additional storage can be found in the external shared laundry room and under-the-stairs shed. This is the perfect opportunity for a first-home buyer, investor, or someone looking to get into the short term rental market.
