AbodeA timeless and elegant residence in a unique setting offering complete privacy. Be inspired by the tangible quality, and impressive proportions of this flexible and luxurious residence. Serviced by a private lift yet mostly spread across one spectacular level with soaring ceilings, the intricate European Oak parquet flooring, adorns the north facing living and entertaining space, which extends into the gourmet Miele kitchen featuring an impressive marble island. Multiple French doors open out to a massive wrap-around alfresco deck that faces north and west for day-long sunshine. The downstairs media room with a cellar and storage offers great utility, complementing the three bedroom, three ensuite configuration including a master with walk-in robe and a marble dual-vanity ensuite.
AreaOne of Armadale's most exclusive locales, this tree-lined boulevard boasts convenient access to High Street and it's high-end retailers and eateries along with proximity to Armadale train station. Close to Malvern Central, The King David School, Loreto Mandeville Hall and Lauriston Girls' School.
