This thoughtfully finished gem of a house is sure to delight! With stone benchtops, beautiful hybrid timber floors, stylish light fittings, and built-in robes in every bedroom, luxurious low-maintenance living is within reach. The open plan kitchen, living and dining area features light-soaked spaces with enough room for a sizable lounge, and bar seating at the kitchen benchtop seamlessly integrates the spaces together. Large glass doors also expand the space into the alfresco area for year-round entertainment. Storage abounds throughout this home, with an enormous walk-in linen cupboard large enough to turn into a bedroom for your magical nephew, and a huge storage nook in the garage that could also be used as a workshop area if you're good with your hands. With tons of other useful features such as a large solar system, ducted reverse-cycle air conditioning throughout, and a fancy security system with one of those new-fangled apps, this is easily the best value property available in Alkimos right now.
