

3/53 McLachlan Street, Maclean, NSW 2463

House For Sale

Wednesday, 3 January 2024

3/53 McLachlan Street, Maclean, NSW 2463

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Toni Skinner

0429453333

$545,000

Nestled at the end of McLachlan Street in Maclean, this meticulously designed townhouse is a gem in a complex of only three units. Boasting a modern aesthetic and thoughtful layout, this property offers a blend of style and comfort for a discerning buyer. Upon entering the unit from downstairs, you are greeted by a large single garage with remote entry, ensuring convenience and security. An additional carport provides ample space for extra vehicles. The ground floor is tiled throughout with a spacious third bedroom or study, complete with a laundry and a second bathroom featuring a shower and toilet. This versatile space is ideal for accommodating family members or providing a perfect haven for a teenager seeking privacy. Ascending to the upper level, the townhouse reveals an open plan lounge and dining area seamlessly integrated with a kitchen boasting an island bench and modern amenities, including a dishwasher. Bathed in natural light, this entire space exudes a bright and airy ambiance, offering a pleasant outlook from every corner. Step onto the veranda to discover a private and covered entertaining area facing north. This outdoor area provides an inviting setting, whether you wish to unwind with a good book or have some friends and family over. Both upstairs bedrooms are generously sized, equipped with built-in robes, fans, and louvre windows. The master bedroom boasts a two-way access to the main bathroom, effectively serving as an ensuite. Additional features are: A great size courtyard adds a touch of greenery and outdoor charm. The fully fenced yard ensures security and privacy, making it an ideal space for a small pet or children to play. With its low-maintenance design, this property caters to the needs of a busy working couple, young family, or retirees looking to downsize. Situated in Maclean, the townhouse offers proximity to essential amenities and services, providing This well-presented and competitively priced townhouse is not just a home; it is a lifestyle choice. Whether you are a first-time homebuyer, a working professional, a young family, or an investor, this property offers a perfect blend of modern living, functionality, and style.