This stylish 3 bedroom apartment is conveniently located with easy access to Seaforth shops and public transport facilities. A boutique block of 5 apartments, with security video intercom and a lift to your door. Set right in the heart of Seaforth Village, this super-central setting places great coffee, a choice of fabulous eateries and local shops at your front door. Another great benefit of this location is how incredibly well connected it is. Express bus services to the city or to Manly can be accessed from just outside the building, and the Wakehurst Parkway is nearby for quick and easy travel up and down the beaches.

- Huge living space with a defined dining area
