Coastal chic living

Quietly located in a scenic part of the Mornington Peninsula backdropped by greenery and surrounding National Parks, this stylish home offers a new approach to coastal living perfect for buyers seeking an atmospheric sea change or a lock-up and leave weekender.

This luxurious home sets the scene for a new wave of boutique living combining cosmopolitan inner-city styling with a sublime coastal setting near Bayviews Golf Course and only a short drive to Rosebud beach.

The home offers three bedroom, two bathrooms with double remote garage.

The kitchens feature a suite of Westinghouse appliances, stone island plus stone benchtops and soft closing drawers. The main bedrooms are flawlessly appointed with a fitted walk-in robe and ensuite with double basins and stone finishes; while the open-plan living and dining areas are light-filled and generously scaled.

Features include split system air conditioning, gas ducted heating, LED lighting, solar hot water system

Close to pristine beaches, schools, Rosebud shopping centre, wineries, sporting facilities, bush walking trails, restaurants and cafes.
