With its lovely clinker-brick Tudor charm faithfully preserved, this ground-floor two-bedroom apartment in "Cheselden" is one of only eight and enjoys a King Domain address and a South Yarra lifestyle. Finished stylishly with stone benches and European appliances, a modern kitchen and meals area opens onto a sheltered little courtyard. The combined lounge and dining includes open fire place. The spacious master bedroom opens onto a large paved courtyard at the rear of the home. The courtyard, with its silver birches, enjoys privacy and dappled morning sun. The renovated bathroom has stone-topped vanity. Features include: Built-in robes, split system air-conditioning, ceiling fans in each bedroom, electric wall heating and an external store room for bike or pram storage. Located between popular Fawkner Park and the Botanic Gardens, the re-roofed and re-painted low-maintenance building is accessed securely by intercom entry. With many cafes, bars, fine dining opportunities, schools, as well as cultural and sporting venues in the vicinity, this is an exclusive location near city-bound trams, Toorak Road and South Yarra railway station.
