If you are looking for peace and quiet and love rainforest surrounds, then this solid block home on an acre is for you! Located in beautiful leafy Bingil Bay, be 1 of only 5 property owners who share 20 acres of pristine, protected rainforest off Bingil Bay Road just 10 minutes drive north of the Mission Beach Village. The famous Bingil Bay Café and Beach is a 1 minute drive (approx) or an easy walk away. The home offers open plan living/dining and kitchen, undercover patio out the front of house and undercover deck along the side of the house overlooking the grounds. The house is fully screened and air conditioned. There are slate floors throughout. The large double carport is separate from the house. Part of the property is well cleared providing plenty of scope for further landscaping/vegetable gardens, sheds and/ or a pool. Town water, Mains power, NBN internet. Please note due to the private shared road access, inspections are strictly by appointment only:
