Wonderfully positioned in a block of 4 units surrounded by convenience and in a family friendly area is a fantastic opportunity for home buyers to buy their very first home or investors to secure a low maintenance property that can achieve great returns. The free flowing floorplan is drenched in natural light and offers the flexibility to work from home in the separate study area without compromising on your living space. The kitchen is fully equipped with stainless steel appliances, stone benchtops and glass splashback that is heated and cooled by the split system and comprises of living and meals area. The double size bedroom with mirrored built in robe looks out to the courtyard, central bathroom and euro laundry all open up to a low maintenance courtyard with slate pavers perfect for entertaining that walks through to the car space that is on title. Walking distance to two bus services, Ruthven station, schools, parks and only short drive to Broadway shops, Northland shopping centre, Preston Market and so much more.
