Set in a secluded rear position within a neat group of just four homes in one of the best streets in the Como Beach Precinct, this spacious and appealing villa home is a real surprise package. With light and bright open plan living spaces opening to a huge undercover deck, there is plenty of room to entertain family and friends, while the modern kitchen and bathroom, along with fresh, neutral tones provide a warm and inviting feel. There is plenty of parking, with a tandem space that will easily fit two cars, plus an additional paved and gated space ideal for a third car or trailer.
