Discover a world where contemporary style meets ultimate convenience in this two-story townhouse, nestled in the vibrant heart of Brunswick West. With its smart design and quality finishes, it's an ideal match for first home buyers taking a confident step into the market, astute investors looking to capture strong returns in a sought-after locale, or those seeking to upgrade from apartment living to a more spacious and refined home. The interior is a masterclass in modern living, where high cathedral ceilings and abundant natural light through energy efficient skylights create an inviting and spacious ambiance. The living area, with its elegant timber flooring, is the perfect stage for both relaxed evenings and lively gatherings, flowing effortlessly into a state-of-the-art kitchen. Here, BOSCH stainless steel appliances stand ready for culinary exploits, set against the backdrop of timeless subway tiles. Step outside and feel the pulse of the neighbourhood from your private balcony, a versatile extension of your living space that promises relaxation and a touch of alfresco luxury. The townhouse's thoughtful layout includes two generously proportioned bedrooms, each crafted as a private sanctuary with ample storage to keep your haven clutter-free. The master suite, with its own private ensuite, is a luxurious retreat where comfort and tranquillity reign supreme. Every detail speaks of quality and convenience, from the climate-controlled comfort of split-system air conditioning to the skylights that invite the sky inside, enriching the home with an uplifting sense of openness. Security and practicality are also paramount, with a secure garage that not only keeps your vehicle safe but also provides additional storage solutions, a coveted feature in urban living. This property stands as a beacon of tasteful living, immaculately maintained and ready to welcome its new owners with open arms, requiring nothing but your personal touch. As for the location, it's beyond comparison. Residing in a desirable pocket of Brunswick West, residents enjoy the suburban bliss of nearby parks alongside the urban allure of Sydney Road's renowned dining and shopping strip. The convenience of transport links including trams and trains, plus easy access to major roadways, puts the city within easy reach, affirming this home's position as a jewel in the Brunswick West crown. For those ready to embark on a new chapter of lifestyle excellence, 3/68 Everett Street presents not just a home, but a gateway to a life of style, substance, and undeniable convenience. Embrace this rare opportunity to own a slice of Brunswick West, a community where growth and lifestyle converge. Your key to a new beginning is here.
